FOREWORD

1976! What a landmark year! The country celebrated its 200th birthday at the biggest party of the century. WACC celebrated its 11th year as a community college. The country had a presidential election in process. An olympic year, a great year.

This ninth edition of The Montage is not going to dwell on the past, however. It is intended to capture one year at WACC in pictures; so in future years you may look back and recall people and events and scenes.

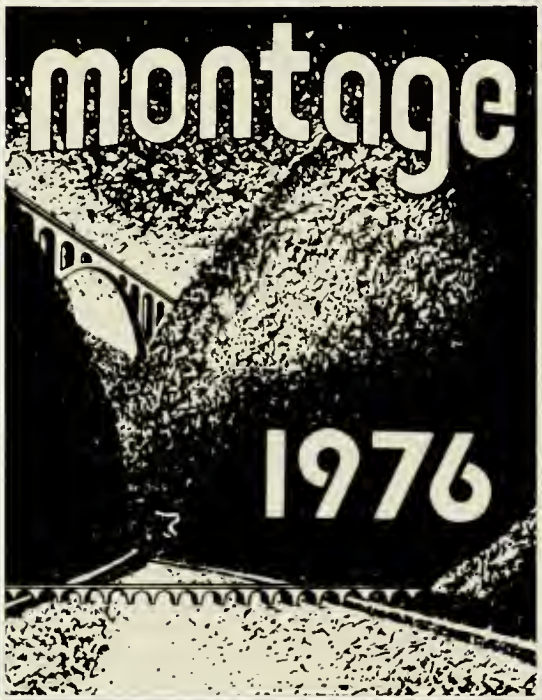
DEDICATION

For 76 The Montage asked the graduates to nominate people for this dedication. Many names were submitted; these five teachers were elected.
Many reasons were given but one kept reappearing: concern for the individual student. This concern is now returned as your students salute you.

JOHN W. HOUGH



BENJAMIN H. ELDRED

Here, take this gift,
I was reserving it for some hero,
speaker, or general,
One who should serve the good old cause, the great idea, the progress
and freedom of the race,
Some brave confronter of despots, some daring rebel;
But I see that what I was reserving belongs to you just as much as to any.

THE CAMPUS

1976 found us in a diverse, colorful, conglomeration of buildings. Beautiful on the long, fall afternoons; bleak on cold, rainy days. And while there were jokes about the campus, there was never any denying the excitement and activity that went on inside the buildings.

Although it frightens me to be living,
I am more afraid of death.
And though it pains me to be breathing,
I shall fight for my last breath.
I was conceived with pleasure, and in pleasure
I remained.
Until my awareness took control—and my pleasures
turned to pain.
Like a rosebud that has withered, so is this life
of mine
So much I have experienced, I've grown old before
my time.
All my tasks have been completed and all my dreams are now fulfilled.
But when it comes to dying
I am not so highly skilled.

Leo Shinn

I was born in this world for a purpose.
Along my way, I met you.
If your presence fits into my purpose,
Then just maybe loving you is my purpose.

STUDENT SERVICES

March 11, 1976, a historic moment! The Student Services group meets for the last time. Organizational changes at WACC have necessitated splitting the group and the re-assignment of people to new areas. So, once more, with feeling Berry's brigade assembles; this time to honor the Dean on his coming retirement. Now, like the last raft down the Susquehanna, the group belongs to history.

I have perceiv'd that to be with those I like is enough,
To stop in company with the rest at evening is enough,
To be surrounded by beautiful, curious, breathing,
laughing flesh is enough,

There is something in staying close to men and women
and looking on them, and in the contact and odor
of them, that pleases the soul well,
All things please the soul, but these please the soul well.

You shall not heap up what is called riches,
You shall scatter with lavish hand all that you earn or achieve.

With music strong I come,
with my cornets and my drums,
I play not marches for accepted

Have you heard it was good to gain the day?
I also say it is good to fall,
battles are lost in the same spirit in which they are won.

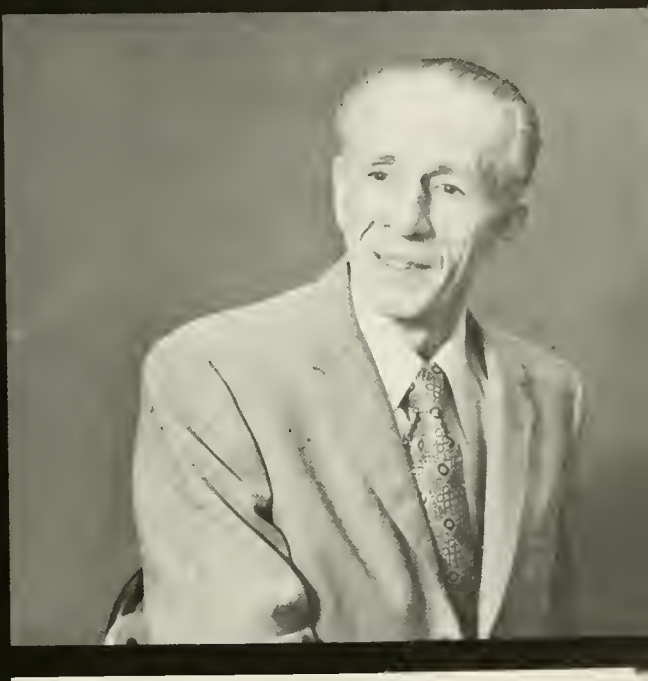
RECOGNITION

It is a rare year when three people of character and stature within the college community retire. 1976 is such a year!

Dean Grant Berry has served as Dean of Student Services. He has been associated with Counselling, Veterans Affairs, Housing, Records, Admissions, and Financial Aid since before WACC became a community college. Yet, with all of these responsibilities, he will best be remembered as a friend of the student. Many returning graduates affectionately recall being admitted and counselled by "The Dean". Several of Mr. Berry's proteges have joined the WACC faculty.

Mr. Richard Long has been director of Audio Visual services. He is as well respected in the community as he is at WACC for his photography, movie making and interest in local history. Dick's career at WACC has included some of the school's most interesting events, including travel all over Pennsylvania telling the WACC story. Dick has often been greeted by the sons of men he recruited and taught. Dick has long been interested in foreign students both at WACC and in Williamsport. He has also introduced closed circuit television to the campus.



Miss Dorothy Schultz is a teacher who has touched and changed the lives of all of her secretarial students. She has touched their lives through her personal interest in each girl; she has changed their lives through her devotion to teaching and her personal example.

Miss Dorothy Schultz is a teacher whose students love her; each girl who graduates takes part of Dorothy with her. She is part of their lives on the job; she is part of their personal lives.

Miss Dorothy Schultz is a teacher who will not be forgotten.

GRADUATES 76

We are the pioneers of the world; the advance guard sent on through the wilderness of untried things to break a new path in the New World that is ours. In our youth is our strength; in our experience, our wisdom.

You have done such good to me
